

Kosianchuk Nataliia Oleksandrivna was appointed as the Chief of Staff of the State Property Fund of Ukraine on March 2, 2026.

Nataliia holds two higher education degrees. She graduated from the Kyiv International University of Civil Aviation with a degree in “Marketing in the Production Sector” and from the National Academy for Public Administration under the President of Ukraine, where she obtained a Master’s degree in Public Development Management.

She has extensive of experience in public service and in the field of state property management. She began her professional career at the Regional Office of the State Property Fund of Ukraine in Kyiv region, where she held positions ranging from specialist to head of a structural division in the field of privatization. She also held management positions at the State Property Fund of Ukraine, specifically in the areas of organizational support for the Fund’s leadership and coordination of structural units.

Over the years, she worked at the State Management of Affairs, where she held management positions and dealt with issues of economic development, coordination of enterprise activities, analysis of financial and economic operations, and implementation of investment projects.

She also held positions as an advisor in central executive bodies, including the Ministry of Infrastructure of Ukraine, the Secretariat of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine, and the State Management of Affairs.

She has been awarded the Certificate of Honour of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine. Holds the honorary title “Honoured Economist of Ukraine.”